Greetings,

The election of Donald J. Trump as President of the United States, has many residents throughout the City of Los Angeles deeply concerned about the impact of possible policy changes to immigration, federal funding of local programming, education and law enforcement. As members of the Los Angeles City Council, it is our responsibility to protect and enhance the quality of life for all of our residents regardless of national origin, religion, ethnic group, language, sexual orientation, gender, marital status or immigration status.

Under the leadership of Council President Herb J. Wesson Jr., the City Council has established an ad-hoc committee on Immigrant Affairs to address these and other unanticipated concerns.

We invite you to the first inaugural meeting of the ad-hoc committee on Immigrant Affairs to share testimony on how any anti-immigrant federal policies would affect you. Testimony will be take in the form of public comment.

Inaugural Ad-Hoc Committee on Immigrant Affairs
